
OUT ON THE LIMB

with George Vierhus

A LETTER FROM MEXICO was received this week (it appears on an inside page) which gratefully acknowledges the support the fire department of the city of Madero has received from the Campbell Fire Fighters Association.

The letter from Cecil H. Knight, technical advisor of the department, mentions receiving the issue of The Campbell Press in which the "adoption" of the Madero department was described.

Knight asked us to print their appreciation in the paper which we are happy to do. The letter especially commends Fire Chief George Maxwell for his help in the project.

Knight writes: "who (Maxwell) through his efforts, goodwill and interest has created a policy of friendship between your people and my people."

Knight also adds that Campbell is fortunate in having a man like Maxwell as head of our fire department.

We don't mind emphasizing that, in our opinion, this sister-city movement instigated by the local firefighters is one of the most outstanding projects of its kind.

George Maxwell and his entire crew, volunteers and regulars, are to be commended for this unselfish and worthwhile "hands-across-the-border" movement.

SAM CAVA, one of our oldest friends in the area, recently paid a visit to our office. He was accompanied by his charming wife, Christine.

Unfortunately we were out at the time. But Lyle Ray, our long-time semi-retired office major-domo, gave us a complete report.

Sam suffered a stroke several years ago and has not yet fully recovered but Lyle reports he was looking well.

As incongrous as it might sound in face of the recent torrid heat wave, the Cavas ordered their Christmas cards while they were here. This is a service we have rendered them for a number of years.

They generally are the first ones who select their cards each year.

Admittedly last week's heat wave wasn't much like Christmas weather. But Christmas is coming.

It was hard to realize, as we wiped away the perspiration, that in less than three months it will be Christmas.

Come to think of it, we had better start looking at those cards ourselves.

HERE WE ARE talking about Christmas and we haven't taken a summer vacation yet.

But we are going to remedy that. We just won't take a summer

Final efforts to save Roosevelt Redwood fails

It's almost final curtain time for Campbell's famous Roosevelt Redwood at the intersection of Winchester and Campbell. But the tree will be remembered through benches that will be made from it, a sort of chip-from-the-old-block idea.

This was the decision of the City Council Monday when last ditch efforts led by Mayor Charles Rose and Councilman Ed Rogers failed to get a stay of execution for the Roosevelt tree.

But all was not lost for friends-of-trees at the same Council meeting. Plans were approved for the intersection improvement at Campbell and Harrison whereby the two stately walnut trees at that location will remain.

The decision on the Roosevelt Redwood came after Mykon Hawk, public works director, had displayed a design for proposed improvements at the Winchester-Campbell intersection.

Hawk had been directed at a prior meeting of the Council to see if there was any feasible way to design the improvements and save the tree.

Hawk's drawing of the proposed improvements showed that a right turning lane would cut directly across the tree. In addition, there would be problems with respect to the placement of power lines and traffic signals.

The Council unanimously then conceded that the tree had to go. However, at the suggestion of Rogers the Council agreed to have benches made from the Roosevelt tree, which was planted by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1904. The benches with suitable plaques will be placed in the city parks and other locations.

It was also agreed to see if shoots or off-

Irate parents in Westmont area score points at Council meeting

Irate parents of grade-school youngsters, who have complained about the fast driving Westmont High School students on 90-foot wide Harriet Ave., in the San Tomas area, gained the sympathatic ear of the City Council Monday.

And at the next meeting the Council may do even better, the parents are hoping.

Finding answers to various traffic problems within the city brought about by new schools in the area will probably highlight the City Council meeting next Monday, October 5. The Council will probably also learn at that time from the city attorney how far the city can go in providing special traffic safety precautions.

Elementary, high school and junior college all are playing a part in providing local traffic headaches, the Council has learned. But the chief complaints stem from actions of car-driving students of the new Westmont High School in the San Tomas area, although the school itself is located within the city limits of San Jose.

APPEAR TWICE

Residents in the Westmont area living on Harriet have appeared twice at council meetings protesting the speeding cars of high school students which they claim endanger the elementary grade chil-

COUNCIL MAKES CHOICE--Monday night the City Council purchased the Wayne street sweeper (left above) for $11,555.44. Before the awarding of the contract, Council members inspected the two sweepers for which bids had been received. Council members Monday night ruled out the bid for a demonstrator submitted by Elgin, although this bid was lower. The city now has a Wayne sweeper which the city will retain. Parts on both machines are interchangeable, it was pointed out.

King-size pipe to carry delta water to Vasona

In a few years hence, traffic and water will follow similar paths in their "flow" through town.

But the "water flow", although paralleling the heavily-traveled Highway 17 freeway, won't interfere with "traffic flow" on that thoroughfare. The water will be underground.

This week the laying of the huge pipeline that will tie in with the South Bay aquaduct was virtually completed through Campbell. (Above Photos) The pipeline will reach from the pumping plant northeast of Milpitas to the dispersal point just north of Vasona when the job is ended.

The mammoth pipeline project is known as the Central Pipe Lines. It is financed by Santa Clara County from funds raised by a bond issue and is under the supervision of the Santa Clara County Flood Control.

It is coordinated with the overall state water project. The state brings water by canal to the county line from the delta area. The county transports the water to the pumping station also by canal and then it is pumped into the pipeline which extends from Milpitas, through San Jose and Campbell and almost to Vasona.

At the dispersal point the water is dumped into Los Gatos Creek and is spread by percolation ponds and other means by the Santa Clara County Water Conservation District.

A small line will transport water to Vasona Dam area from the termination point.

The pipes that were installed through the Campbell area were transported from Hayward by truck. In most instances only one section of pipe was hauled on each truck.

Most of the sections were 40-feet long. The inside diameter measurement of the pipe was 66-inches and a section weighs about 28,000 pounds. Pipeline workers reported that 40 sections have been laid in one day and that nine trucks are used in the transportation.

Myron Hawk, Campbell public works director, explained that the city laid down "ground rules" where the digging through Campbell involved city streets.

Hamilton, Campbell and Camden avenues were affected.

Crossing Campbell however was done by excavation.

Dinner honors champs

Tomorrow the Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars, world champions, will be honored at a community dinner at Villa Felice.

The dinner is at 7 p.m. Tickets are $5 per person.

Although the banquet room only holds 250, ticket pre-sales have not been up to expectation and a number of tickets are still available. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. Tickets may be reserved by calling Les Baldinger, DR 9-4439: Bill McLain, 378-8516: Campbell Chamber of Commerce, 378-6252 or Valley Sports.

Bob Fontaine, scout of the Pittsburgh Pirates, will be the principal speaker.

Sister city possibility

The Campbell Fire Fighters Association has "adopted" the fire department of the city of Madero, Tamps, Mexico. Since the "adoption", much needed fire-fighting equipment has been donated to the struggling department in Madero which protects a community of 60,000.

Many firms, as well as fire departments in other communities, have cooperated with the local association in this project.

We think this is one of the most worthwhile projects that any group could undertake.

We commend Fire Chief George Maxwell and his gang for their work. It is an excellent way to build good will with our south-of-the-border friends. And this country of ours seems always in need of building good will.

We are heartily in accord with the recent action of the City Council which, on the recommendation of Councilman Bob McElroy, officially recognized the efforts of the Campbell Fire Fighters Association and commended the group for its work.

The Council also directed that a suitable certificate be prepared and dispatched to the Madero fire department and the administration of that city.

We also think the suggestion of Councilman McElroy that Madero be established as an official sister-city of Campbell should be explored to the fullest extent.

We believe that the good will that has been developed through the efforts of the Campbell fire fighters should be cultivated and expanded.

We hope that the sister-city committee of this city will look into the possibility of changing Madero from its present foster-offspring status as developed by the firemen to that of sisterhood.

This relationship change should not be too complicated a step and we believe the benefits derived will be really worthwhile.

Tribute to champs

This community officially honors the Pony League world champions tomorrow evening at a dinner.

This actually will be the first time that the area has been able to pay homage to the Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars, the world champs for 1964 on a formal basis.

True, most of us recognized the achievement of the kids when they copped the championship after that long tournament trail and mentally we probably gave them a pat on the back.

But tomorrow night the community makes it official.

It is doubtful that there has been any other event in this community's history that has created as much good will outside our area. Or has there ever been such "good publicity" for this community as that developed by these youngsters.

It was a great experience for the boys. Reports indicate that they acted like "little gentlemen" in every city in which they played. This also speaks well for their parents, coaches and managers.

Their record of 18 straight wins in the long grind of tournament play will probably stand for a long, long time.

But we are just as proud of their record off the field as well as on it.

In fact we are just busting with pride.

We are happy then that the community tomorrow night will officially give the Campbell-Moreland all-stars the recognition the team deserves.

It couldn't happen to a better bunch.

Planners to act on gas station

Planning Commission will hold a hearing on a use permit request for a service station at Bascom and Hamilton on Tuesday, October 6.

The corner is now occupied by Rip's Drive-In, owned by R. H. Schleeter. The use permit request is being made by Mobil Oil Co. Future plans also are understood to call for a new drive-in to be built adjacent to the station, if the use permit is granted.

At the last meeting of the Planners, approval of plans for David Sanchez for a second residence at 410 N. Harrison was continued until the decision has been made to modify the present city ordinance.

The Commission also re-approved the application of Warren F. Brown for office and warehouse on Florence Way subject to the condition that a fire hydrant be installed. The time had expired on the original approval. Brown had objected to the fire hydrant condition.

The Commission deferred action on an ordinance amendment that would strengthen the "S" control requirements.

The Planners also discussed the future plans for street intersections on Latimer.

Richard V. Hogan, newly-appointed planning director, is expected to be present at the next meeting. Hogan, who takes the place of the late Orville Overen, will be paid $884 per month.

vacation. Period.

We'll take a fall vacation instead.

We plan to take off a few weeks starting this weekend.

The joint will be in the capable hands of Joe Anello while we are gone, as it was for more than two years when we were in the southland.

Joe will probably knock off a column for you to take the place of "out on the limb" and he expects to get a couple other "volunteers" to do a column or two.

Frances Clever will be in while we are gone also to give the regular staff an assist.

So we won't be worried about the operation while we are gone. We have a good reason for reporting our absence here.

We want to be sure that we will be missed.

NOW THAT SCHOOL is started and the bond issues have been settled, we expect soon to be involved with Superintendent Bill Henley and Mayor Charles Rose in planning for the first cornerstone "unlaying ceremony" in the history of the community.

You may recall that when the Campbell school district leased the old Campbell Grammar School to the junior college it was decided that the cornerstone of the building (circa 1922) should be removed and the contents preserved.

It was decided to make it a joint city-school district event. Bill and Charlie were directed by the council and the school board to work out details. We also got into the act.

As far as we know there is no precedent for such a program, locally anyway. So we are sort of on our own. And we are all curious just to see what the cornerstone contains after 42 years.

Charlie Rose, of course, has the inside track. He was in grammar school when the cornerstone was laid in 1922. He recalls marching by and dropping pennies in the box. He'll probably get his money back intact. But no interest.

Anyway, if any of you have any ideas of what kind of program should take place, let one of us three in on it.

We need help.

THIS AREA'S MOST DISTINGUISHED citizens (junior grade), the world champions Campbell-Moreland Pony League all-stars, will be honored tomorrow night at an awards dinner.

The kids really deserve the plaudits of the community.

Their record-shattering performance in the long tournament trail leading to the world series brought fame and honor to this area.

They were good-will ambassadors of the first cabin variety.

We are happy to join in this community-salute.

Dear Mr. Vierhus:

Our City Fire Department received a copy of the Campbell Press of September 2nd, 1964 in which we read all about the help we are receiving from the Campbell Fire Fighters Association. Our Fire Fighters were very pleased to see their picture in your paper and they ask me to write you this letter to thank you and your staff for the nice article. It it is not to much trouble for you I wish to ask you to print our appreciation to your local Fire Fighters Association and neighboring fire departments as well as all the business firms for all the equipment they have been sending to us. Everybody IN THE STATE is talking about this equipment and is considered as the best equipment ever received by a Fire Department in the State. You can figure out how proud we are to posses this equipment. I am sending a copy of our paper "El Mundo" that is one of the best in the State to show you the value they have given to this gift.

I will appreciate it very much if you be so kind as to print in your paper our deep appreciation and thanks to all the people that have made possible this help to our Fire Department and specially to Mr. George Maxwell, Chief of your Fire Department, who through his efforts, good will and interest has created a policy of friendship between your people and my people. Permit me to say that you are most fortunate to have a man like Mr. George Maxwell in your city and you should be proud of men like him that honor your city.

I would have like it to say all this in a florid and fluent English, unfortunately I can't find the right words, so I am asking you to please interpret this letter as you think is best.

Hoping to hear from you in a near future and thanking you for your kindness, I remain dren who are walking to and from school.

At last Monday's meeting, the residents disagreed with the report submitted by the police chief and traffic engineer. The report of Myron Hawk, traffic engineer, indicated that traffic studies showed that the traffic on Harriet was light most of the time and any expenditure above installed street markings, speed limit signs, and street markings could not be recommended.

Police Chief John Morgan reported that a concentrated effort had been made to reduce speed in the area and pointed out that there are similar school traffic safety problems in other areas of the city.

REBUTTAL

Richard Dobson, of 750 Harriet, as spokesman for the Westmont residents, who were well represented at the Council meeting, tore the survey report apart in a written rebuttal submitted to the council.

The rebuttal claimed that "the report seems overly concerned with the delay the child has in attempting to cross. We are not concerned with this delay--we are concerned with the child's safety. The problem is twofold: (1) The 25MPH speed limit is not observed. (2) The crosswalk right of way is violated on a regular basis."

Council members appeared sympathetic to the plight of the parents. They were ready to adopt the recommendations of the residents which included the installation of slow-school signs and painting the crosswalks yellow. But Hawk reminded the Council that such signs and marking were regulated by state law and specified the distance from the school where they could be used.

City Attorney Joe Bonacina then agreed to check out the law and see what the city could do in that regard and report at Monday's meeting.

The Council, however, did direct that a stop sign be placed at Harriet and McCoy, a white stripe be painted on Harriet and to investigate the possibility of using more crossing guards or special police in the area when the traffic is heavy.

40-MINUTES

In other matters affecting traffic conditions, the Council deferred until October 5 any discussion or action on the request of the police department that 40-minute time limit parking be put on Campbell Ave. and adjacent streets. It was pointed out that since the junior college has opened many are abusing the parking limits now in effect, although the junior college parking lot between Rincon and Campbell is only half-full.

The Council requested that Chief Morgan appear at the next meeting to explain in detail why he thought the 40-minute limit was necessary.

In another action indirectly affecting the control of traffic, the Council approved the purchase of new radar equipment for approximately $1100. It was explained that the radar would probably get considerable use in the Westmont area.

springs of the Roosevelt tree could be obtained and planted in and around the intersection.

The tree-conscious Council lost no time in approving the plans for the improving of the intersection at Campbell and Harrison where the two stately walnut trees have long guarded the railroad track. The walnut twins have become a landmark of the city.

American Auto, Hawk reported, has dedicated the necessary right-of-way. All that is necessary now is to get Southern Pacific's approval of the railroad crossing improvement.

The two walnut trees will be on an island and the right turning lane will be expanded. The city will pick up the tab for the intersection improvement.

City rejects Park bids

Dissatisfied with the bids received for developing Phase II of Campbell Park on Los Gatos Creek, the City Council Monday rejected all of them and directed George Martin, landscape architect employed by the city, to try again.

The Council had earmarked $20,000 for this development and had asked for a base bid plus bids on five alternates (or other improvements). Council members had hoped that the base bid would be low enough to allow them a chance to get some of the other improvements and still stay below $20,000. The base bids were so high that the Council decided to rule them all out and start over.

In asking for new bids, the Council decided to consolidate the base bid with the first alternate which includes the planting phase and hope that the figure will be below $20,000.

In other actions concerning parks, the Council---

--GAVE first reading to an ordinance that would establish a Parks and Recreation Commission of seven members which would act as an advisory agency on all parks and recreation matters for the Council.

--DEFERRED action on the awarding of bids for park maintenance until next Monday, October 5.

--DIRECTED City Manager Bob Stephens to investigate the acquisition of reclaimed land south of the Camden bridge by either the county or city to be used as a park.

Big wheels start rolling at City Council meeting

Bids were called for two new passenger cars, one for the city manager and the other for the police chief, by the City Council Monday.

Vehicles played a big part in the Council meeting. The Council accepted the bid for a new International dump truck for $5161.91 and purchased a street sweeper for $11,551.44.

In other actions, the City Council---

--GAVE first reading to four zone change ordinances, affecting the Dover and Sunnyoaks areas, including the changing to P-O (professional office) two parcels on Hamilton from R-2.

--APPROVED the huge street-improvement project for W Campbell Ave. between San Tomas Creek and Fulton St.

--ADOPTED two zone change ordinances. One for P-D on Hacienda which had been opposed by the Turturici family at the first reading and the other that had been requested by Campbell Memorial Chapel.

Hornets and Bees win both games at Camden

Santa Clara Valley Hornets rallied in the final quarter to nip the Milpitas Kings 26-20 in last Sunday's thriller at Camden High School. Sparked by fullback Ec De La Rue, the Midget Team, the Hornet Bees, trounced the Milpitas Dukes, 26-6.

Trailing 20-19, the Hornets tallied in the last quarter on a 52 yard pass and run play from quarterback Rich Troedson, a freshman at Camden High School, to flanker back Steve Orbanosky.

Full back Glen Schanck, a Del Mar freshman, scored a 5 yard run. Bob Huber, fullback, ran for two touchdowns. Both Schanck and Huber charged through the King lines for additional points after scores.

The Hornets, who are now 2-0 in the Pop Warner West Bay league play, will test the Alum Rock Lions next Sunday at James Lick.

The Bees, also with a 2-0 standing, will face the Sunnyvale Rockets at Sunnyvale.

Both the Hornets and the Bees are supported by the Hornet Gridiron Club. Each team plays in a different weight classification and league. The Hornets are in the Jr. Bantum Class while the Bees play in the Midget League.

To be eligible for a Jr. Bantum team a boy cannot turn fifteen before August 1, 1964 and cannot weigh more than 125 on weigh-in day. A midget team member does not weigh more than 110 lbs. on weigh in day and cannot turn fourteen before Jan. 1, 1965. Pop Warner Football, as played in the West Bay Division, in this manner avoids the gross "mis-match" of players.

FAIR WINNERS

College selects colors, mascot

In an unusually high voter turnout Thursday, students at West Valley Junior College adopted school colors and a mascot, Dean of Student Activities, Calvin Bell has announced. They shall henceforth be known as the Vikings and their colors will be blue and orange.

Indicative of the high enthusiasm among the student body, Dave Denholm, student chairman of the Organization Committee, reported that just under 62 per cent of the full time day students -- those holding student activity cards and thus eligible to vote -- had exercised their franchise. A 40 per cent voter turnout in a student body election --whether in a junior college or a four-year institution--is considered a rarity.

Another campaign in progress among a spirited group of West Valley students is one of seeking to remove the "Junior" from the official name of the school.

The student body newspaper, the Collegian--also a tentative name--published the findings of a spot survey among students indicating overwhelming support of the campaign. An editorial in the same paper urged that West Valley "give junior the boot."

Del Mar Sports

By Steve Ells

From now until the last day of school this column will cover Del Mar High School sports. Every week I will tell you about the events coming up in the future and review the events of the weeks preceding.

In the fall division there are four after-school sports. These are: Varsity football, B football, C & D basketball, and Cross Country.

The Varsity football team at Del Mar is coached by Al Mathews, who is head coach: Ralph Carr, back coach: and Ron Dominguez, line coach. There are about 40 men out for the team and all of the starting line-up have a lot of experience in contact football.

The B football team, coached by Ernie Piunti and Wade Wilson, has been practicing hard and is anticipating a winning season. Two years ago the B's won the league championship. Last year they had a 2-3-1 record.

The C & D basketball teams, coached by Dave Morgan and Rollo Koivisto, didn't get quite as good a turn-out of players this year, but the coaches believe that even with the limited number of players, they will have a good season. The C & D teams are for smaller players and thus create a fall sport for the small boys.

Cross Country is a growing sport at Del Mar because it doesn't require contact and any size person can participate on equal grounds. Coach Ray Dyer has his top men coming back from last year. With these men back Dyer believes he probably won't have too much trouble in league finals to be held at Stanford Nov. 12. Last year the sophomore team placed first in the league.

Last Friday, Sept. 25, the Varsity and B football teams played a night game at North Salinas High school in Salinas.

STUDENT LEADER

Ron Peterson, 933 Norin Court, Campbell, was one of the student leaders of University of California, Santa Barbara, who recently participated in the annual legislative council conference held in Ojai, Calif. He is chairman of the department commissions board of the student body at UCSB.

Board lists priority for building program

Campbell Union School District Trustees last Thursday took swift action to proceed with the building program approved by district voters in the recent $5 million bond election.

The Trustees also expressed appreciation to all those who worked for the success of the election, and to the voters for their approval of both the bond and state aid authorization measures.

The board then voted to instruct the administration to proceed.

PROJECTS

The administration was instructed to make application to the Office of Local Assistance, Department of General Services, on a priority list of construction projects.

The Projects:

Hazelwood School, addition #3: 4 classrooms, library and appurtenances. Approximate square feet 6,500: estimated cost $160,000.

Quito School, addition #4: 4 classrooms, library and appurtenances. Approximate square feet 8,500; estimated cost $170,000.

Rolling Hills School, addition #2: 4 classrooms, special arts and crafts, science, shop and homemaking rooms and appurtenances. Approximate square feet 13,958; estimated cost $250,000.

Capri School, addition #2: 5-room cluster with appurtenances. Approximate square feet 8,000; estimated cost $170,000.

Blackford School, addition #3: upper grade facilities consisting of library, arts and crafts, science, music rooms, and shower and locker rooms and appurtenances. Approximate square feet 12,537; estimated cost $175,000.

Rosemary School, addition #2: 4 classrooms, library and appurtenances. Approximate square feet 6,675; estimated cost $121,600.

GROWTH FACTOR

Superintendent Wm. C. Henley pointed out that the district may not get immediate authorization for this last addition to Rosemary, and possibly not for the Blackford addition unless its population growth and house count are sufficient to qualify it for this much added footage.

The order of priority, he explained, has been established in terms of how much enrollment growth already has occurred and is projected for the near future in the several school attendance areas. Where the most students most critically need added buildings for their education, these additions are highest on the priority list.

They also directed the administration to instruct Santa Clara County to sell $935,000 (approximate) in school district bonds - the amount required by the Office of Local Assistance to bring the school district to its legal bonding capacity.

PARENTS PRESENT

A group of parents at the meeting asked the trustees for assistance in getting their children to school safely. They claim that poor walking conditions exist along Wedgewood Avenue and Pollard Road. The board instructed the administration to investigate.

The board decided to appoint a committee to consider the desirability and feasibility of holding summer school. Those appointed were Howard Guilbert, Roy Howard and John Merriell, trustees: and principals, Tony Van Laarhoven, Wayne Fontes and Mrs. Dorothy Sutter.

Trustees accepted the invitation of Dr. Wallace Hall to tour the remodeled Campbell Grammar School, now the temporary home of West Valley Junior College, at 7 p.m. October 8.

Trustees also agreed to meet with the Moreland School District board of trustees for dinner on October 22, following their CUSD board meeting at 4:30 p.m. The two boards will discuss mutual boundary problems.

Member THE ORDER OF THE GOLDEN RULE

DON'T LEGALIZE SKELETON CREWS

HERE'S WHAT PROPOSITION 17, THE "SKELETON-CREW" SCHEME, WOULD DO:

WIPE OUT public supervision of railroad safety in California ☐ DEPRIVE the Public Utilities Commission and the Legislature of their rights to protect public safety ☐ KILL California's Minimum Safe Crew Law ☐ LEGALIZE "skeleton crews" ☐ SURRENDER to the railroads control over train safety practices ☐ FREEZE into the State Constitution the sole right of the railroads to decide safe crew requirements ☐ PERMIT the railroads to put their profits before your safety ☐ INCREASE sharply the chance of disastrous train wrecks in California.

[FOR THE RECORD: PRESIDENTS EISENHOWER, KENNEDY AND JOHNSON HAVE ALWAYS SUPPORTED RAILROAD SAFETY LAWS— the California Minimum Crew Law is just such a safety measure!]

On election day, Tuesday, Nov. 3rd, the railroad companies are asking you, the people of California, to vote away your rights as citizens...to hand over to the railroads full power to decide the number of train crewmen necessary for public safety.

This vital control over railroad safety laws is now held by your elected State Legislature and by the Public Utilities Commission. Proposition 17, the "skeleton-crew scheme" sponsored by the powerful California Railroad Association, would repeal California's Minimum Crew Law—a safety law which has prevented untold loss in lives and property ...and given California one of the best railroad safety records in the nation.

At the same time, Prop. 17 would eliminate public supervision of railroad safety in California. It would leave the railroads completely free to cut the size of train crews as they see fit...below the present safe minimums now prescribed by law. In short, it would leave the question of public safety vs. private profit solely in the hands of the railroads.

VOTE NO ON 17

MRS. BARNEY D. MAZZONE

500 friends attend Orsi-Mazzone wedding

Miss Jacqueline Orsi became the bride of Barney D. Mazzone of San Jose at a beautiful double ring ceremony at St. Lucy's Church recently. Rev. John Lally officiated at the afternoon nuptials before an altar decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums. Bouquets of chrysanthemums tied with white ribbon bows marked the pews.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Renso J. Orsi, wore a luxurious gown of pure silk ivory taffeta. The basic gown was strapless, with an Empire fitted bodice, over which she wore a bolero of English net, featuring a high Bateau neckline and elbow length sleeves. A removable silk train formed the bouffant watteau court train. Her crown was fashioned in a band of ivory silk and pearls and held a short veil of English illusion.

Her bouquet was white sprays of Phaelanopsis and Stephanotis centered with a white Catalaya orchid.

Four attendants preceded the bride down the aisle. They were Miss Leann Barberi, maid of honor, and the Misses Terri Orsi, sister of the bride, Sharon Mazzone, sister of the bridegroom, and Maryann Santone. They were attired in matching floor length gowns of moss green crepe. The gowns were topped with short cropped bolero jackets of muted print tapestry. Their headpieces of green crepe were trimmed with four tiers of mossgreen demi-veils. They carried cascades of gold mums.

Richard Davis served as best man and the ushers were Robert Knobel, Steven Peacock, and Richard Caravelle. Altar attendants were Master John Ceichiai of San Francisco and Master Martin Chiechi of San Jose.

A reception for 500 guests was held at the San Jose Elks Club. A six tiered wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds. Music was provided by Leo Schortino and his orchestra.

The young couple are now on a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco and will make their future home in Campbell. For her going away ensemble the bride chose a gold wool suit with fur collar with matching accessories.

The new Mrs. Mazzone is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Renso J. Orsi, 2515 Winchester Blvd., Campbell. She is a graduate of Notre Dame High School in San Jose and attended San Jose State College. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Mazzone of San Jose. He is a graduate of Bellarmine College Preparatory and attended the University of Detroit.

THAT FEMININE TOUCH

By Dolores Keywood

Do you use a deodorant? If you don't, you NEED one. Even if you don't think you OFFEND, the first rule to use a deodorant.

You are not the best judge in this instance. Those around you are, but they will rarely tell you the truth. You've heard, "Even your best friends won't tell you"? How true this is!

Both men and women have this problem but men are the biggest offenders. Many men feel it is a mark of femininity to use a deodorant, yet they will use the most fragrant, after shave lotion they can find. Oddly enough, most anti-perspirants have little or no fragrance at all.

Women spend many unnecessary dollars every year replacing items in their wardrobe because they have been ruined from perspiration--or because it is impossible to remove the odor.

Applying either a deodorant or an anti-perspirant is very simple. All you need do is follow directions to a tee. And for complete protection, use them in combination.

Apply an anti-perspirant under the arms after bathing. Be sure you allow it to dry and once again FOLLOW DIRECTIONS. In some instances you must wash after drying. This is usually to prevent clothing discoloration. Between these applications, use a cream, liquid or stick deodorant.

This method usually works for those who perspire heavily or there are other products on the market that are specially created for this problem. Check the labels before making your purchase and get the one that's right for you.

Grange adds fourteen to roster

The membership of the Orchard City Grange No. 333 continues to grow with the initiation of fourteen new members. Ross McConnell; Mesdames Viola Woods, Myrtle Giessel, Rose Knaub, Lynn Yates, Muriel Lester, Linda Phariss, Clara Hanley and Richard Phariss.

Home Economics Chairman Barbara Carter announced that the next meeting would be at the Grange Hall at 1:00 p.m. on October 9. A "Thrift and Gift" sale will be discussed. The Grange took two awards at the Santa Clara County Fair, one for the Agricultural Department Booth and one for the H.E.C. Booth. A Halloween dance is planned for the evening of October 9 with refreshments and live music.

State service cooperates with college jobs

A Santa's helper, a tutor for a tough high school chemistry course, a stock clerk for a retail store - student workers for these and other part-time and temporary jobs are being provided at the West Valley Junior College by the California State Employment Service in cooperation with the college district, according to Mrs. Margot Savage, manager of the San Jose office of the California State Employment Service.

Mrs. Louise Pelton, placement officer for the Employment Service, is on the college campus on the student personnel center from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. She states that many of the students registered for work have clerical skills or have had experience in both saleswork, service stations, housework, baby sitting, yardwork.

Since some students need part-time work in order to continue their education, support is needed for this worthwhile community project. Employers are urged to call for these eager, willing, young workers for their job openings. The placement office number is 379-1733, Ext. 22.

Paintings by Frank Cutting at Congregational Church

This coming Sunday will launch the much-anticipated series of showings of paintings by Frank H. Cutting at the Congregational Church of Campbell, 400 West Campbell Ave. Exhibits will be open to the public from one to five P. M. on three consecutive Sundays: October 4, 11 and 18.

These showings are a highlight of the church's seventy-fifth anniversary celebration and will be featured as a memorial to Cutting who died at the age of 91 in June of this year. He had been a member of the church since 1895, taking an active part in church affairs for many of the 69 years of his membership. A long time deacon, Mr. Cutting had been awarded the title, "Deacon Emeritus."

A San Jose Normal School graduate in 1897, Cutting taught school for a year and then purchased a ranch near Campbell. Later, through the assistance of an uncle, he was able to devote himself to full-time painting. He began his formal study of art at the age of fifty at the old College of the Pacific.

Cutting was an active member of the Los Gatos Art Association and his work has been exhibited in the Los Gatos area. He had many one-man shows at the Palace of the Legion of Honor in San Francisco and at the Stanford University Art Gallery. Paintings by Cutting were featured at homecoming day at San Jose State College in 1947 on the occasion of the golden anniversary of his graduating class.

With the help of Cutting's wife, Lora and his daughter-in-law, Doris Cutting, each an artist in her own right, paintings have been selected for the show. Paintings from the family collection include fifty of Cutting's larger oils representative of his work from the 1930's through 1963 as well as a number of smaller paintings. There will also be shown works on loan to the exhibit by proud owners of Cutting paintings.

Under this program the Navy pays all tuition for four years of college. In addition, the selected students will receive books and uniforms plus $50 per month during their college work.

At graduation, students are commissioned either as ensigns in the U. S. Navy or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps.

Newsmen put politicians on grid October 17

The moment of truth will come for combatants on the political scene the evening of October 17 at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds.

That's when the San Jose Newspaper Guild will host more than 1,000 of the Central Coast region's leading business, industrial and political figures at its 9th Gridiron Dinner.

The event, one of the leading social events of the political year, draws its name not from the football field but from the dramatic program, a series of skits which comment satirically on the local and national political arena. Their purpose is to deflate the pompous and roast vulnerable officialdom over the grid.

Achievement will be recognized also with the presentation of a gold-plated stick of type to the person chosen as the Guild's Distinguished Citizen of the Year. The selection is made on the basis of his outstanding contribution to community affairs.

The banque is by invitation only. Invitations are to be mailed shortly, according to Dennis Britton, general chairman.

Those in attendance at the dinner will receive a copy of the slick magazine published by the Guild which features original satire, comment and fiction by member Guildsmen.

Churches oppose importing of farm labor

The Board of Directors of the Santa Clara County Council of Churches recently took action on two legislative issues. It opposed the renewal of Public Law 78 and other provisions for importing low-wage farm labor into California. In addition it called for the California State Government to phase out the bracero program and to help provide conditions that will allow the California domestic laborer to make a living wage in agricultural work.

The Board also called for the defeat of Proposition 16, an initiative proposal to establish a lottery in California, and called for the passage of Proposition 13, prohibiting the naming in the State Constitution of a private corporation to perform a function of state government. Such a corporation, the American Sweepstakes Corp., would promote the lottery established in Proposition 16.

This story takes place in a Texas town where a scandal develops in government. The Wooden Horseshoe exposes the manuevers and morals of men who hold positions of trust.

Youth Science Institute launches membership drive

The Youth Science Institute's Junior Museum at Alum Rock Park for boys and girls across the valley, is launching a membership drive. Many students in its Saturday classes come from the West Valley, and many Youth Science Auxiliary members are West Valley women. Among the local active members are Mrs. Charles Hintze, Mrs. George Leyva, Mrs. James Riley, and Mrs. William Traber. All of these women are joining forces to recruit twenty new YSI members apiece, using letters of invitation and personal contact.

Laurence Moitozo is the Youth Science Institute director and has given talks and demonstrations to schools in the Moreland districts. The present membership drive will complete raising adequate financial support for the present program this year.

The YSI program goes far beyond what visitors can learn in a brief stop at the museum. It goes into all aspects of nature, both for youngsters enrolled in schoolyear Saturday classes in Alum Rock Park and those reached by the museum staff who lecture in the classrooms in half the districts in Santa Clara County.

CAP AND GOWN--Students of West Valley Junior College formally met their board of trustees, faculty and staff at the first assembly held during the second week of the term. The occasion was a solemn and colorful one with the staff and faculty appearing in full academic regalia. Pictured is a group of faculty members fitting their caps and gowns in the faculty lounge prior to the assembly.

Santa Clara County Fair sets all-time attendance record

Total attendance at the week-long 20th Annual Santa Clara County Fair set an all time record as 275,659 visited the fair. The old record, set last year, was 261,115. Another record to fall was the single daily attendance record. Friday's crowd of 78,450 was the biggest ever. Sunday's attendance was 53,539.

The fair passed the four million mark, too, when Mrs. James LaMaack of San Jose became the four millionth person to visit the fair since it began in 1941. She went through the gates Friday night.

In one of Sunday's special events, Leonard Busch, nine-month-old crawler, won first place in the World's Championship Diaper Derby. Leonard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Busch, 5289 Discovery Ave., San Jose. The new-champ out-crawled Dorothy Gassman, the girls winner. Dorothy, at ten months, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gassman, 112 Magneson Terrace, Los Gatos.

The Lockheed Missle Riders took first place in senior division in Sunday's mounted units parade. Second went to Santa Clara County Horsemen. In the junior division, the Guadalupe Red Shirts took first, the Los Altos 4-H Riders won second, and the Santa Clara County Junior Horsemen took third.

The annual national open baton twirling contest was also held Sunday with grand champion sweepstakes titles going to Pamela Martin of Sunnyvale in the juvenile division, Susanne Silvera of San Jose in the junior division, and Sandy Thompson of Newark in the senior division.

Bill Fraser of San Francisco won the Pacific Coast Open Horseshoe Pitching Championship, held Sunday at the fairgrounds.

William A. Straub, fair secretary-manager, called the 20th annual show "the best ever."

"I'm delighted with the record breaking attendance and particularly the ideal fair weather we had."

All of the fair's departments reported more and better entries than in past years.

In the agriculture department, superintendent Gene Vennum remarked that the people were better, too.

"We've never had so little pilfering of fruit as we had this year," he said.

In the home economics department, Mrs. Marie Campbell, department chairman, announced the sweepstakes winners, including Mrs. Ann Broyles of San Jose in canning, Mrs. Elisabeth P. Barnes of Cupertino in textiles, and Mrs. Barbara Jean Kelley of San Jose in baking.

Livestock chairman Dee Barnes said some $22,000 was paid out in premiums to the 2,000 entries in his department. And the junior division office reported record entries from both 4-H members and FFAers from the county.

The Sheriff's Department had a big week, too, with 650 kids lost during the fair, 300 of them on Friday alone.

Youths do well with market animals at fair

Some 300 Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club members parted with their market animals at the Santa Clara County Fair's annual junior division livestock auction Saturday in San Jose.

Junior division superintendent Lionel Cross called the auction "a remarkably fine sale," and reported about $43,000 paid for the animals by both commercial buyers and county service clubs.

Sold were the sheep, swine and beef market animals that have been in competition for ribbons during the fair.

Champion sheep sold included: FFA--Joe Lomonaco, Morgan Hill FFA, 94 pounds, sold to O.C. McDonald Plumbing Company, San Jose, for $1.10 pound. 4-H--David Yuhas, Rucker 4-H, 115 pounds, sold to Rosicrucian Press for 60¢ pound.

Champion swine sold included: FFA--Alfred Zugar, San Jose FFA, 228 pounds, sold to San Jose Meat Company for 65¢ pound. 4-H--Linda Burnett, Gilroy 4-H, 182 pounds, sold to Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Spolizar of Los Gatos for 45¢ pound.

Champion beef sold included: FFA--Joe LoMonaco, Morgan Hill FFA, 888 pounds, sold to Valley Large Animal Hospital, Campbell, for 65¢ pound. 4-H--Doris Meek, Gilroy 4-H, 998 pounds, sold to Sears, Roebuck
